

NEXPL^{ORE} Games

Economics & Entrepreneurship

Grades 6-8

The Economics & Entrepreneurship Course teaches fundamental skills for understanding key economic principals. Students will learn the importance of making informed plans to manage their resources strategically and effectively. They will explore elements of the market and how to prioritize and manage investments in uncertain conditions. As budding entrepreneurs, students will also develop plans, calculate their risks and think out of the box as they proceed with their goals.

Game	Topic	Image
Blokus	Key Points, Resource Management & Flexibility
Can't Stop	Calculated Risk
Cartagena	Consumption v. Investment
Gobblet	Predicting & Avoiding Problems
Lunar Lockout	Front to Back Method & Out of the Box Thinking
Mini-Bridge	Planning Moves in Uncertain Conditions

Game	Topic	Image
Octi	Forward Planning & Strategic Retreat
Oops	The Pygmalion Effect
Pylos	Resource Management & Flexibility
Quoridor	Proactive Planning & Initiation, Stop and Think Method to Analyze Threats/Opportunities
Rush Hour	Strategic Retreat & Reducing a Problem to its Core Elements
Take It Easy	Prioritizing Opportunities & Management Investments	