

The Emotional Skills Course helps students to identify, process and apply their emotions while playing games. Students learn the value of self-reflection, learning from mistakes, collaboration, working under pressure, acknowledging their own feelings and showing empathy for the feelings and interests of others. The importance of confidence, attitude, motivation, harmony, change and self-regulation are also explored and applied to real life situations.

Game	Topic	Image
Can't Stop	Deferring Gratification
Connect Four	Identifying & Blocking Threats
Dots	Double Cross & Sacrifice Strategies
Dragon Treasure	Self-Regulation
Kara Kupe	Conveying Feelings
King's Game	Learning from Mistakes & The Reflection Method
Oops	The Pygmalion Effect

Game	Topic	Image
Papilio	Coping with Change
Quoridor	Developing Empathy & The Stop & Think Method
Rush Hour	Taking Responsibility & Strategic Thinking
Spot It	Understanding Perspective
Turtle Race	Keeping a Secret & Springboard Method
Optional Take It Easy	Working Together in Harmony
Optional Octi	Taking One for the Team	